

ad hoc CITIZENS' SCHOOL REFORM COMMISSION

Just 28% of young people are qualified to join the armed services, 80% of preschoolers have a high self-esteem; just 5% of seniors feel good about themselves

Education is getting a failing mark

SUNDAY, JULY 11, 2010 The Philadelphia Inquirer

80% of high-school seniors have "sworn" that they'll never, ever, voluntarily read a book

Though she can help, Academia has never been needed!

From the inner city to the suburbs, thousands of schoolchildren are being systematically subjected to mandatory classroom policies which inflict both physical and emotional harm. Hundreds of school officials from across the country have been found guilty of sexual harassment, the illegal use of undercover agents, strip searches, corporal punishment, verbal abuse, punitive isolation, and other forms of institutional abuse. In Dangerous Schools, Professor Irwin Hyman and Pamela Snook, passionate advocates against the institutional maltreatment of children, reveal exactly what is going on in our nation's schools and what we must do about it.
